

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., August 25, 1885.

Sir:

There seems to be no authority of law for making any extra allowance for pay at the expiration of a term of service in any grade of employment in the United States Mint. Where an actual claim exists for vacation at the end of a term of service, the date of dismissal must be at the expiration of such vacation and the vacancy created not previously filled.

This is in reply to your communication of the 21st instant, and will govern you in general without special reference to this Bureau.

Very respectfully,

Geo. P. Kimball

Director

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent Mint,

Philadelphia.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 135

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
August 25, 1885

Sir:

There seems to be no authority of law for making any extra allowance for pay at the expiration of a term of service in any grade of employment in the United States Mint. Where an actual claim exists for vacation at the ends of a term of service, the date of dismissal must be at the expiration of such vacation and the vacancy created not previously filled.

This is in reply to your communication of the 21st instant, and will govern you in general without special reference to this Bureau.

Very respectfully,
Jas. P. Kimball
Director

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent Mint,
Philadelphia.